MISSISSIPPI SOCIETY
TO BANQUET SATURDAY

Prominent Members of Both Houses of Congress Will Attend Eb-bitt Celebration.

Practically all of Mississippi's numerous native sons in the United States Senate and House of Representatives and Mississippians prominent in official life expect to be present at the first annual banquet of the Mississippi Society at the New Ebbitt next Saturday night.

Benjamin C. Humphreys, chairman of the newly-created floods committee, is absent with his committee inspecting the flood district, but will return on Wednesday and officiate as toastmaster.

Among the guests will be Senators Williams and Vandamm, of Mississippi, and the five present Senators who are natives of Mississippi: Chamberlain, of Oregon; Clarke, of Arkansas; Gore, of Oklahoma; and Newlands and Pittman, of Nevada; also the Mississippi Congressional delegation: Representatives Chandler, Collier, Harrison, Humphreys, Sisson, Stephens, Quinn and Yemba.

Among other guests will be Representatives Chandler, of New York; Gray, of Alabama; Hardy, of Texas; and Taylor, of Arkansas, who are also natives of Mississippi.

Music will be furnished by the National Quartet, composed of Mrs. Elizabeth Maxwell, Miss Lillian Chenoweth,

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

For the District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia—Partly overcast and rising temperature Sunday and Monday; light to moderate variable winds, locally brisk.

The temperature will rise over the States east of the Mississippi River during the next two days.

Along the North Atlantic coast there will be westerly gales.
